

Annie Jacobs

---

Conservation Biology Institute

136 SW Washington Ave., Suite 202

Corvallis, OR 97333

Phone: 541-757-0687

www.consbio.org

annie.jacobs@consbio.org

Annie is a GIS Analyst with the Conservation Biology Institute. She has an educational background in international environmental policy and a professional background in water resources data management and endangered species policy. Prior to joining CBI, Annie worked in natural resources data management developing databases and performing data and spatial analysis for wildlife, groundwater, springs, and streams monitoring protocols.

EDUCATION

Graduate Certificate. Geographic Information Systems, Pennsylvania State University, State College, PA. December 2015.

Honors Bachelors of Science – Cum Laude. Environmental Science – Minor in Natural Resources and Environmental Law and Policy. Oregon State University, Corvallis, OR. December 2012. Thesis: A Comparative Study of Climate Change Policy and Actions between the United States and Sweden.

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

2016 – present. GIS Analyst, Conservation Biology Institute, Corvallis, OR

2016. Assistant Data Manager, NPS Sonoran Desert Network/Tucson Audubon Society, Tucson, AZ

2015-2016. Americorps Data Management Intern, NPS Sonoran Desert Network, Tucson, AZ

2015. Stream Team/MPA Watch Volunteer, Santa Barbara Channelkeeper, Santa Barbara, CA

2014. Conservation Biology Intern, Center for Biological Diversity, Portland, OR

2010. Research Assistant, James C. Carrington Laboratory, Corvallis, OR

2010. Data Analysis Intern, OSU Sustainability Office, Corvallis, OR

2009. Lab Assistant, USGS Forest and Rangeland Ecosystem Science Center, Corvallis, OR